Quittapahilla

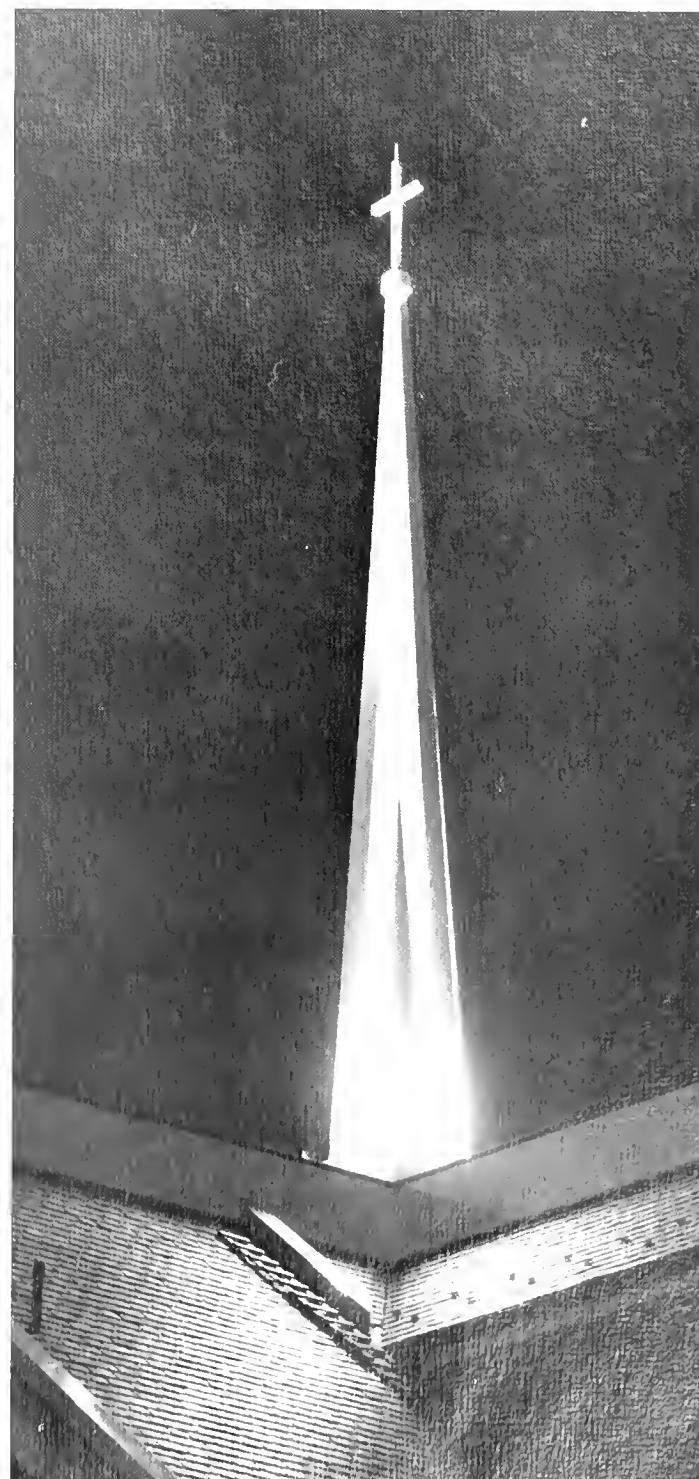

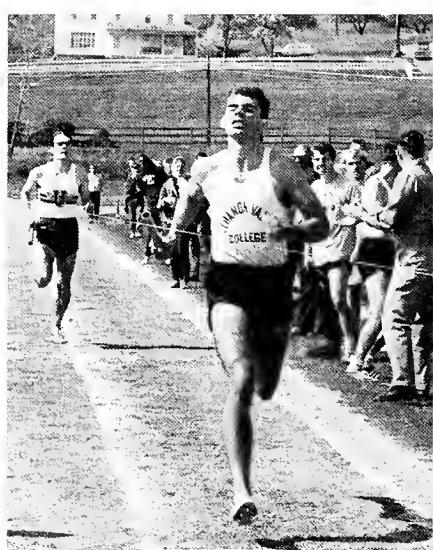

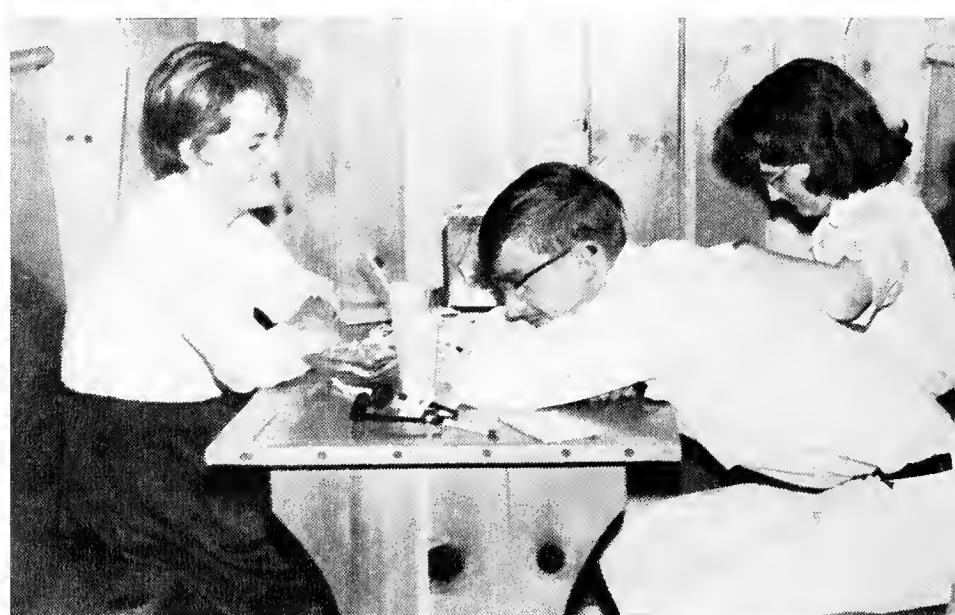

Lebanon Valley College
Annville, Pennsylvania

As a part of the centennial observance, another milestone was reached in the history and progress of the college when the Lebanon Valley College Chapel was dedicated on October 30, 1966. Although the college has continually throughout its century of service endeavored to meet the spiritual needs of the college community, the dream of a college chapel has now become a reality.

The chapel, a bi-level structure which is located in the center of campus, is a living testimony to the Christian commitment about which the entire college community revolves. The Contemporary Gothic edifice has a sanctuary following the European tradition; and lecture halls, conference rooms, and offices on the lower level. A spire topped with a cross which towers above the surrounding community is indicative of man's higher spiritual and academic aspirations.

The 1968 Quittapahilla is dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. D. Clark Carmean in gratitude of their unceasing service. Although much could be said of their many activities two are most outstanding. Mr. Carmean as Director of Admissions has inspired many students to Lebanon Valley College through the warm welcome and friendly hospitality he extends to everyone who visits our campus. Mrs. Carmean has been responsible for much of the preparations of our centennial observance, especially for writing the centennial play "Sauerkraut and Boston Beans."

The 1968 Quittapahilla wishes Mr. and Mrs. Carmean continued success and happiness as they travel along life's way.

We bring a foundation to build upon;

a foundation of beauty, strength, and talent

and our structure we mold
the body, mind and spirit.

Homecoming

From the Lebanon Daily News, November 5th:

"WHAT'S RIGHT . . . WHAT'S WRONG

The natives are restless these days at Lebanon Valley College. For an explanation all you have to do is look at the college's football schedule. Today, the Flying Dutchmen clash with their traditional rivals from Reading, Albright College.

And all week long, things have been happening on and off campus at Annville. The rumors have been flying but no hard facts are available. It seems that even the girls have been backing their team with signs attached to appropriate garments saying "Bust Albright" and "Beat the Pants off Albright."

Then some mean so-and-so set fire prematurely to the pile of combustible material that was to have been the pep rally bonfire. Matter of fact, they put the torch to it one night before the rally, and the fire department was called.

There were loud explosions on campus which first were identified as gunshots, but later were described as firecrackers.

It's all been in the best tradition of college life and it would be a good thing if the authorities would stop getting excited about it.

It's a lot better than burning draft cards.

The Frosh Battle the Class of '69

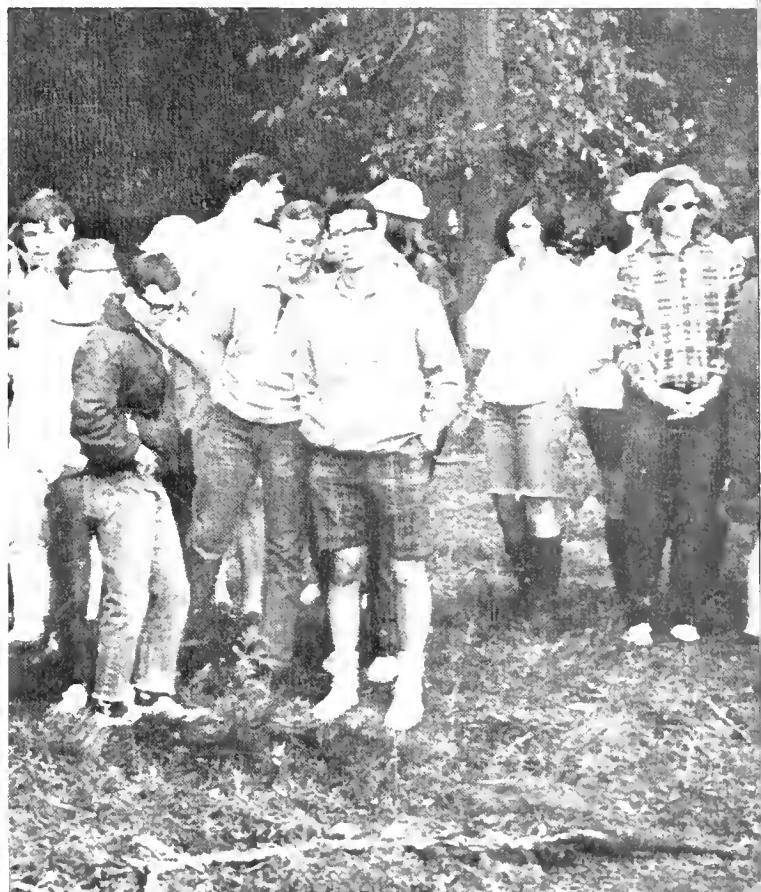

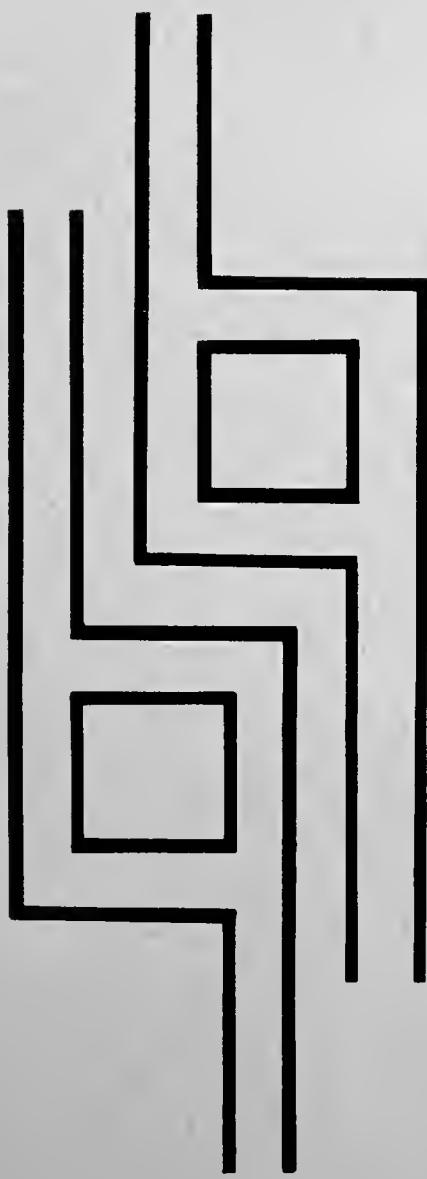

. . . and thus the mighty

Sophomores triumph.

Kappa Lambda Sigma, a social fraternity, highlighted its fall semester by sponsoring the "Letterman" on campus in October. At the homecoming game the most valuable player award was presented by Kalo to Larry Painter. Continuing a campus favorite, the Inter-Campus Competitive Program was sponsored by Kalo in December. The annual K-D spring weekend completed another big year for the brothers of Kappa Lambda Sigma.

Delta Lambda Sigma, social sorority, is Kalo's sister organization. Delphian, as the sorority is called, sponsored with Kalo the K-D Kickoff Dance, I.C.C.P., and K-D Weekend. As well as a service project from the Lebanon Crippled Children's School, Delphian sponsored a Christmas party for a group of orphaned children. Campus activities included shoeshines, candy and donut sales and car washes.

The Knights of the Valley, the smallest of the social fraternities, is a leader in the intramural program. The most coveted athletic award on campus, the Chuck Matson Award, is presented annually by the Knights. Another campus highlight, the Knight's Street Fair, is held each spring. For their spring dinner-dance, the Knights choose the Holiday Inn Town.

Phi Lambda Sigma, originally the Philokosmian Literary Society, marked its centennial on the Lebanon Valley campus this year. Homecoming 1966 was big for Philo, including a dinner for parents and friends at the Green Terrace. A skit, "The Spirit of '76", enabled Philo to win the Inter-Campus Competitive Program. To complete the year, the Philo-Clio weekend dinner-dance was held at the Hershey Hotel.

Kappa Lambda Nu is a social sorority, sister organization to Philo. Clio housed members for the first time this year in a sorority house. The sorority participated actively in Homecoming spirit with decorations and a car caravan. Intramurals, open houses, and Philo-Clio Weekend were among Clio's major activities. Service projects included hoagie sales, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to needy families and trips to crippled children's homes.

Football

An opening game loss to Wilkes in the final second of play set the stage for the remainder of the season for Coach William McHenry's Flying Dutchmen. Although handicapped by injuries to key personnel, the team never lost its spirit as shown in its victories over Muhlenberg and PMC. Captain Larry Painter led the many fine individual efforts being selected to ECAC recognition along with fullback John Fasnacht and tackle Pete Giraffa. Seniors Bob Hawk, Bob Martalus, John Haven, Dan Chambers and Painter were instrumental in Lebanon Valley's successes in football over the past four years.

Compiling a 3-6 meet record during the regular season against stiff opposition, the team was sparked by Dick Williams' fine performances and many first places. Sophomore Jim Davis figured as the man behind Williams and showed marked improvement over his freshman year. Senior Paul Murphy also added considerable power to the team's running, while Lou Waring consistently provided the needed boost in morale. Williams also placed in the top five in the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships. The team was under the helm of Coach Bob McHenry.

An impressive victory over Albright in the Lynch Memorial Gym was the highlight of the 1966-67 basketball season. Led by co-captains Pat Simpson and Bromley Billmeyer, the team exhibited a balanced scoring attack and fine rebounding. Billmeyer and Simpson led the team in both departments, while significant contributions were made by Jerry Stauffer, Harold Todd, Bob Atkinson and Bruce Decker. Coach Bob McHenry directed the varsity through the exciting season.

Under the guidance of Coach Mayhoffer, the junior varsity exhibited an excellent record. Freshmen John Dottolo, Bill Allen, Frank Kuhn and sophomore transfer Dennis Snovel paced the attack.

The 1968 Quittapahilla would like to express its appreciation to the following, who gave us their cooperation and assistance in compiling this book:

Lebanon Valley College of 1968: The Administration, Faculty and Students

Public Relations: The Rev. Bruce Souders, Richard Showers, Mrs. Ann K. Monteith

American Yearbook Company: Neal Layser, representative
William's Studio—William Buser, William Lau, photographers

And so we lay a foundation and begin to build;
But, what must we resolve in order to progress?
A war in Vietnam
 Will our striving achieve our goals?
The dignity of Man
 Will our understanding allow justice and equality?
Our Ultimate concern
 Will our believing secure our thoughts?
The way may be uncertain, and the demands many;
But may our foundation prove to be firm.
